CHURCH/SCHOOL RELATION: Established in 1972 KHCS is an integrated auxiliary of Killian Hill Baptist Church, which is doctrinally a fundamentally independent ministry. While the pastor serves as general overseer of the ministry, the "day-to-day" operations of the school are left to the responsibility of the Minister of Education. The faculty and staff are expected to become active members of Killian Hill Baptist Church.

ADVANCEMENT: The consistent philosophy of this ministry through the years has been to provide opportunities for advancement within the ministry rather than seeking to fill supervisory positions with personnel from outside the ministry.

ENROLLMENT TRENDS: KHCS enrollment has been consistent with recent national Christian education fluctuations, as well as being affected by local education issues.

STUDENT DEMOGRAPHICS: The student body is comprised of students representing approximately 150 different churches within the area. Approximately 10% of the student body is comprised directly from the members or regular attendees of KHBC. Since 1986, KHCS graduates number approximately 500 and KHCS is represented in a number of both secular and Christian colleges and universities. Some graduates have qualified for and received both academic and athletic scholarships to institutions of higher learning.
